

The story of żurek

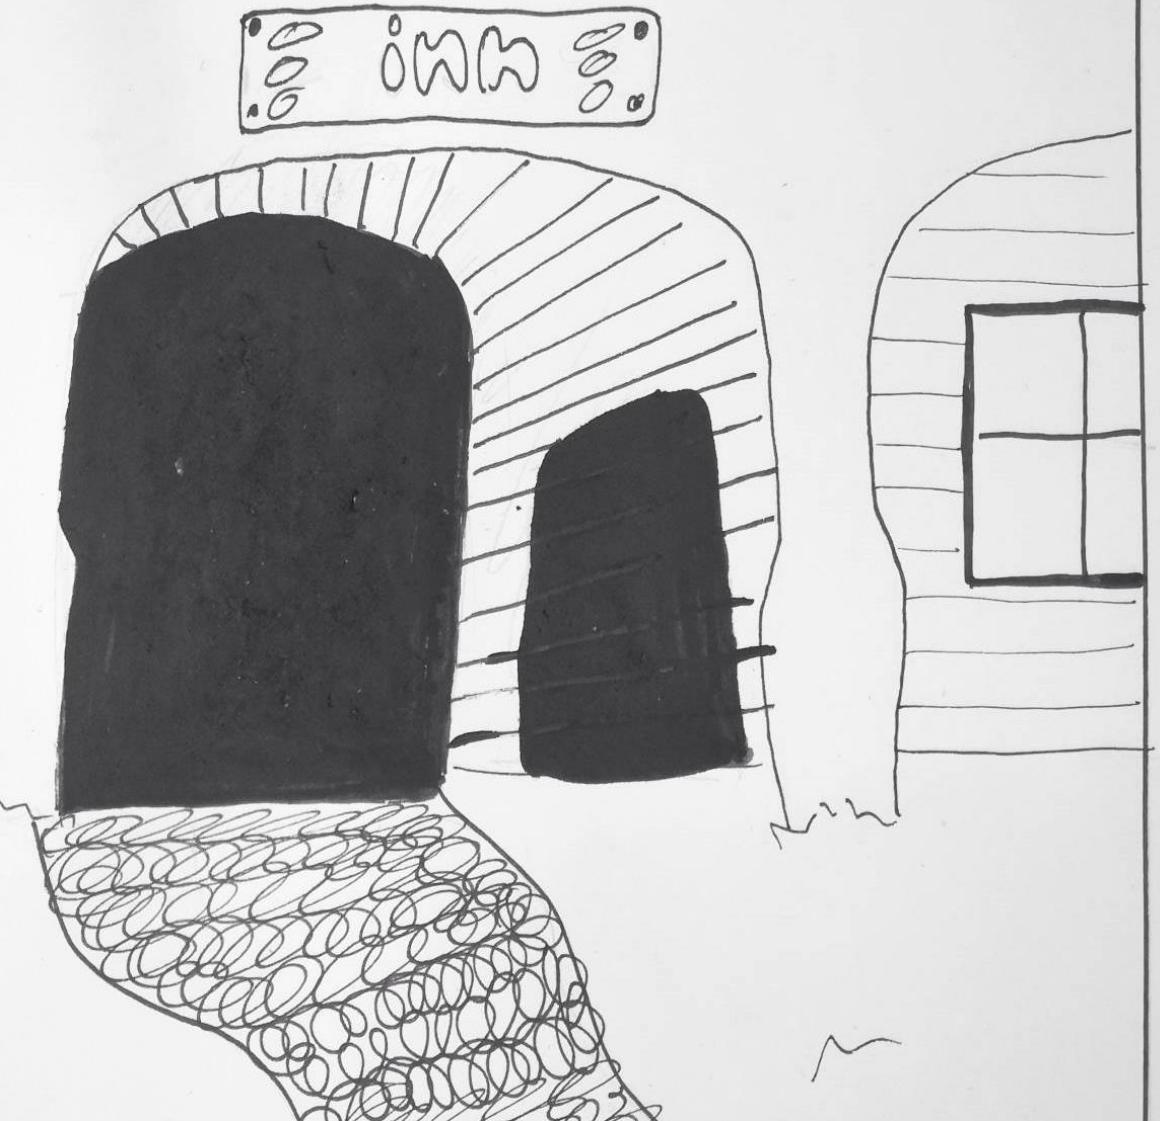

traditional Polish soup

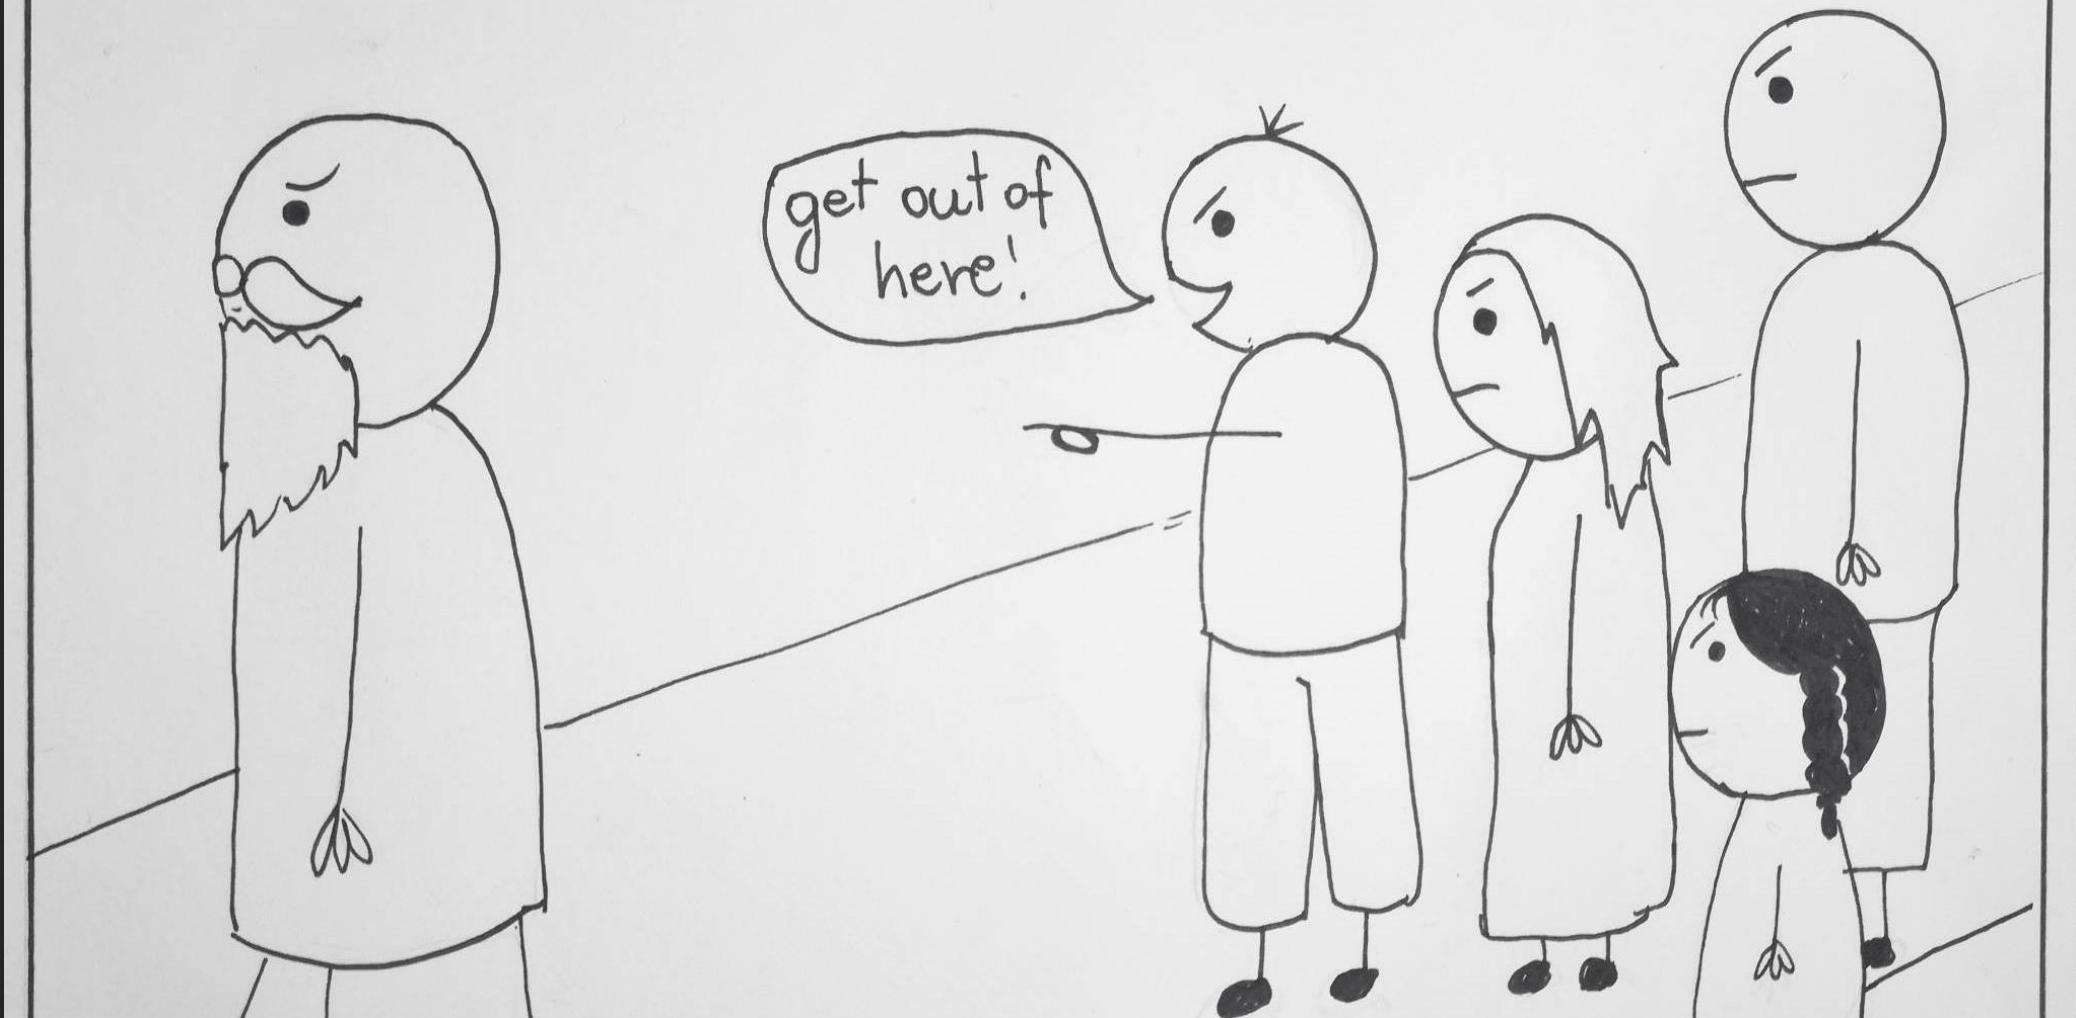

A LONG,
LONG TIME AGO
in one of polish
villages

...lived a very poor
innkeeper

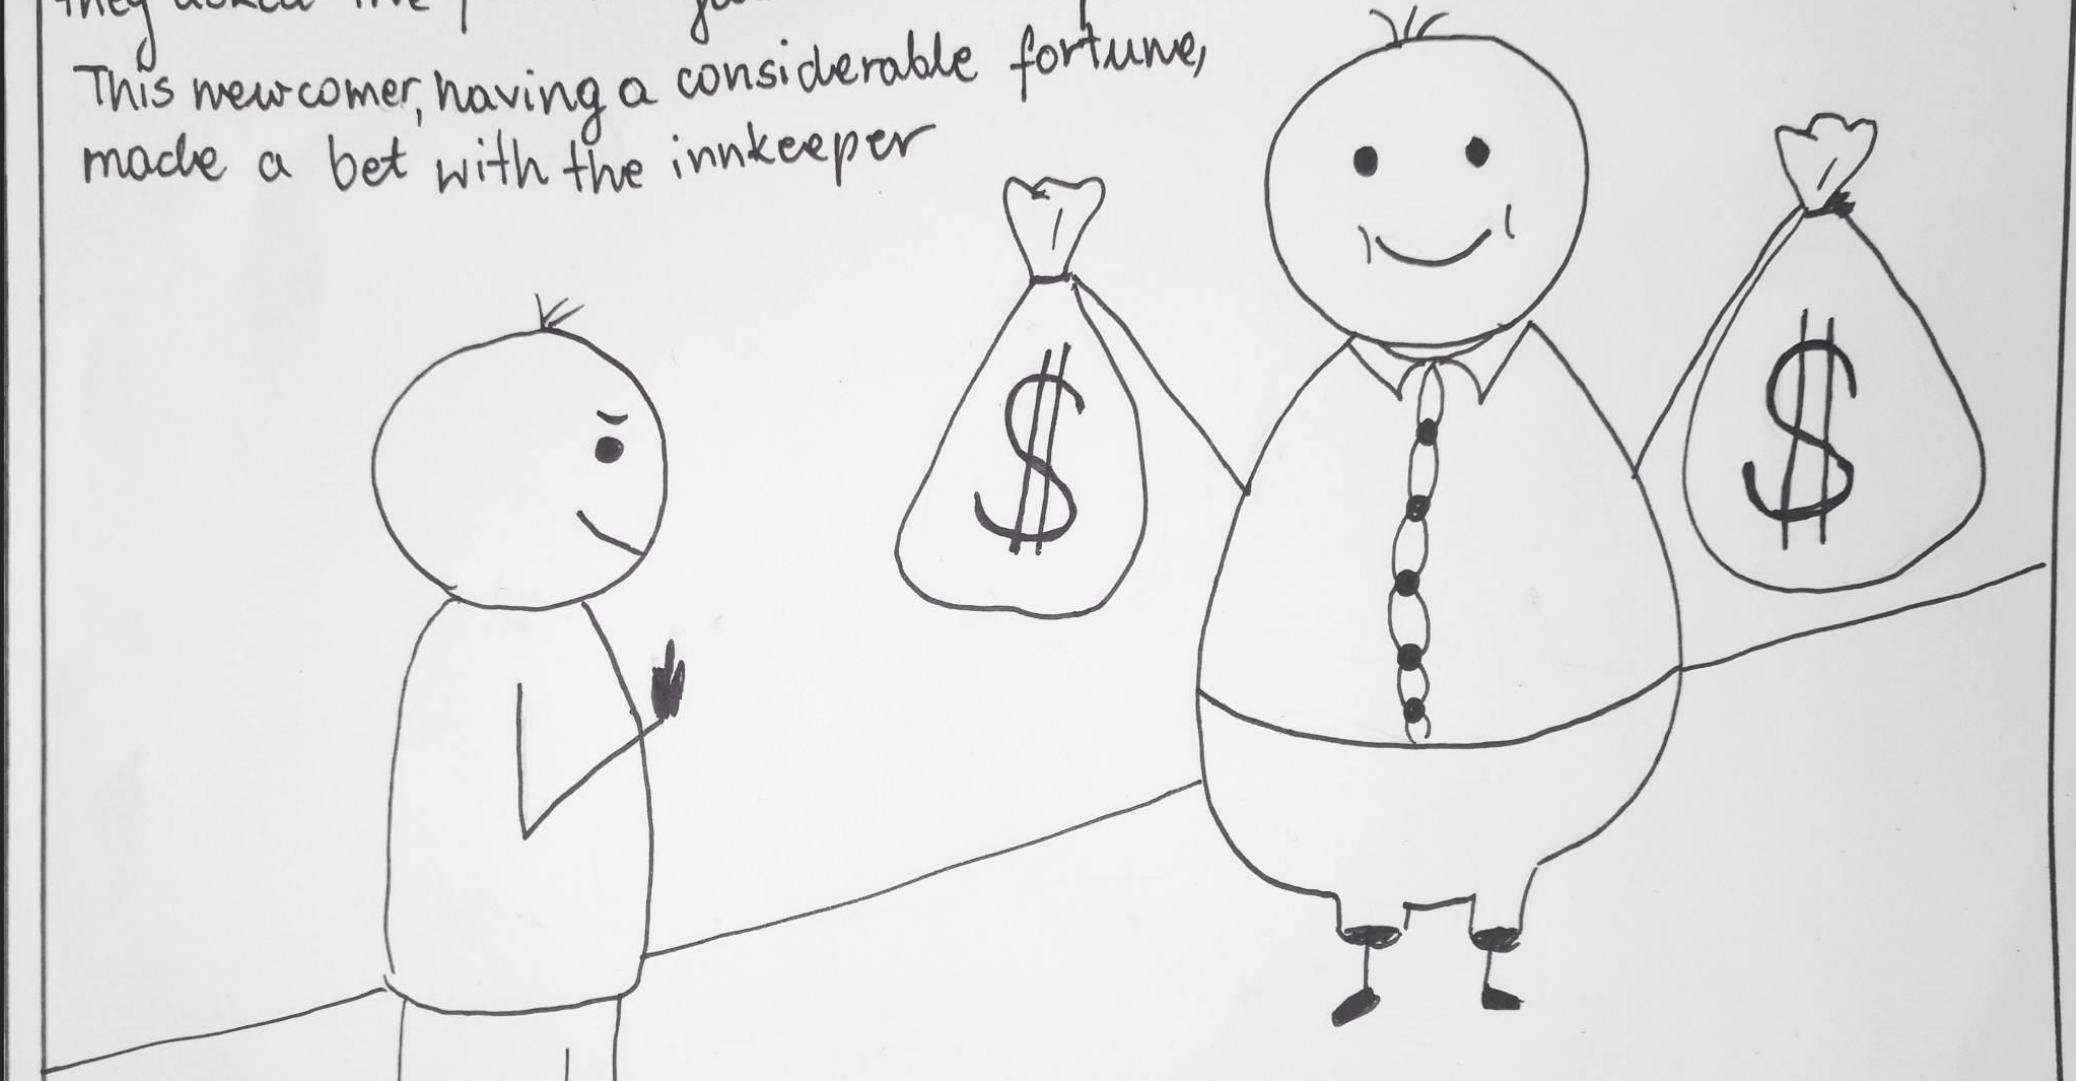

out of greed, he deceived his neighbors, and they wanting to drive him out...

they asked the famous glutton to help.

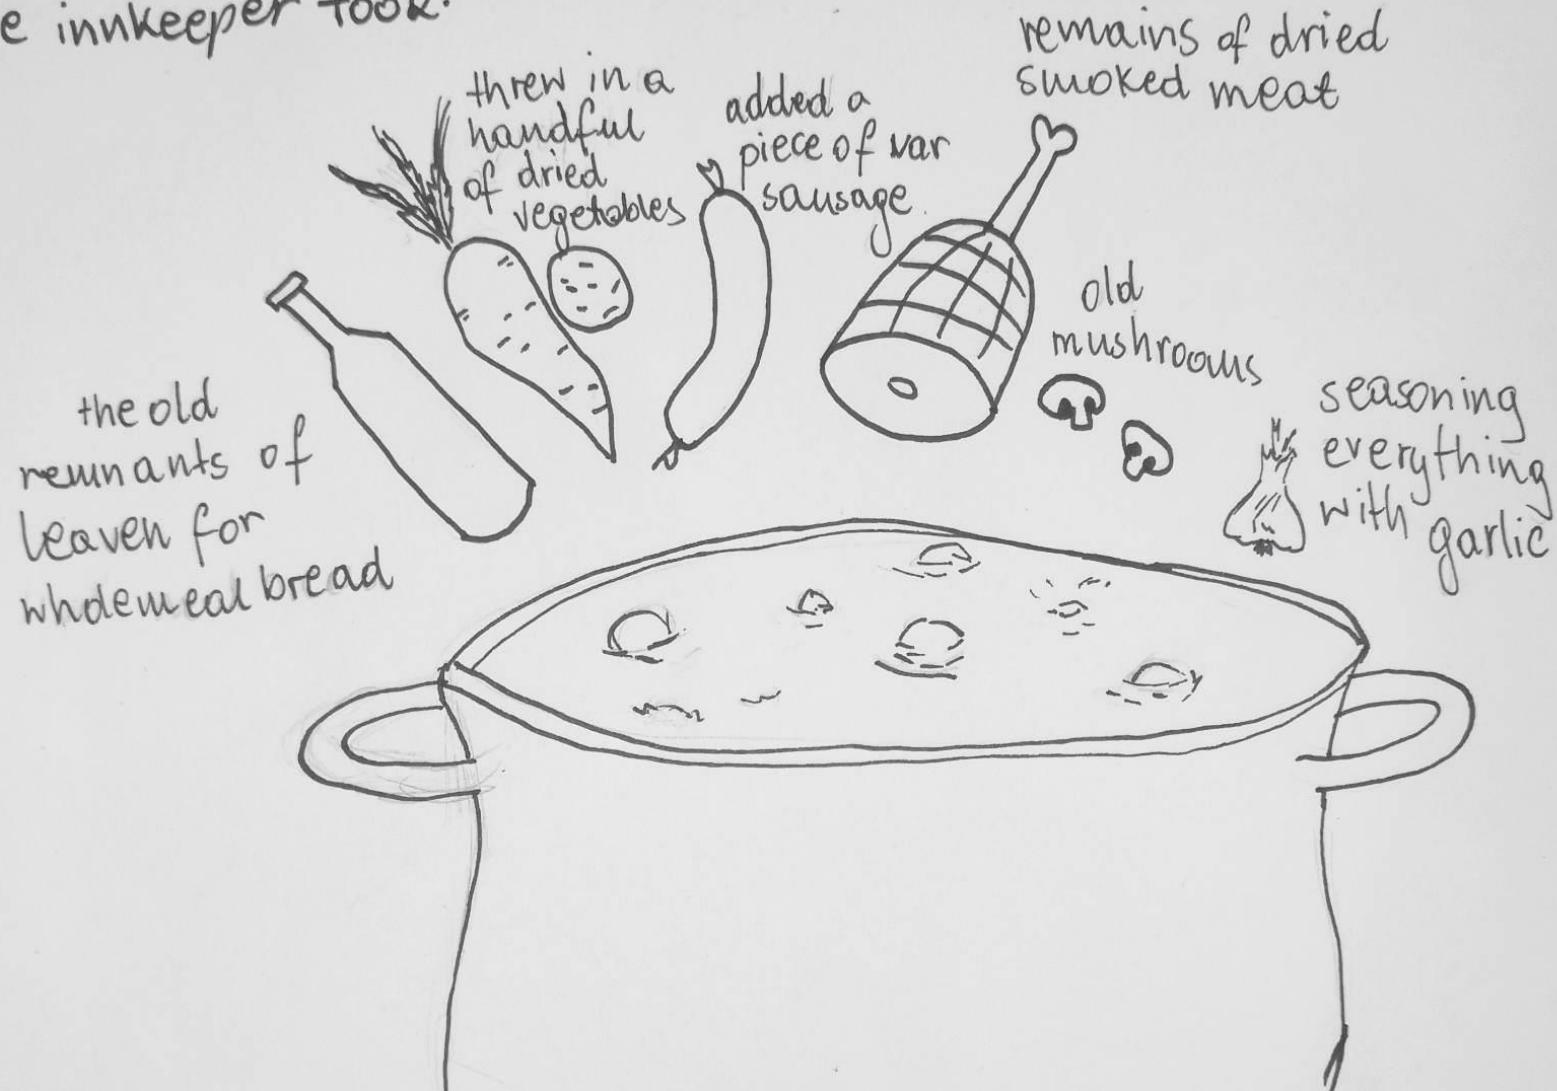

This newcomer, having a considerable fortune,
made a bet with the innkeeper without getting indigestion. If he does so, the innkeeper will leave the village, if not, we will take over all guest's property

The innkeeper took:

The mysterious guest ate the soup with relish so the innkeeper was forced to leave the village...

